Let's Start!

Let's review!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations.

Ask your partner:

- Which of these two countries would you prefer to visit, China or Russia? Why?
- What do you want to see there? Why?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about places and attractions.
- I can ask and report about things and events.
- I can make strong recommendations.

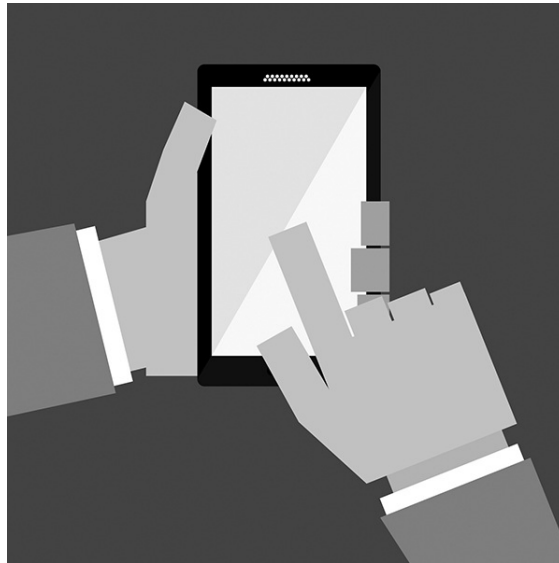

Let's Explore!

Sally, John and Vanessa are video chatting! John can't keep up with Sally's blog and Vanessa is still using crutches*!

* To "keep up with" someone means to stay at the same level as someone or something.

 "Crutches" are a long sticks used to help a person walk and stand.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Vanessa: Guys, can you help me? I have an interview at a restaurant. I need to prepare a dish for it too. I feel sick!
- John: You have to calm your nerves and think positive.
- Sally: You should prepare a Chinese one. I had lots of authentic food here! John, where are you now?
- John: Buenos Aires.
- Vanessa: Isn't that in Argentina?
- John: Yeah, it's the capital city. Where are you heading?
- Sally: I'm headed to Russia.
- Vanessa: Where in Russia? How far away is that from Beijing?
- Sally: Moscow. It's 3,606 miles away. I'm looking forward to visiting the Kremlin.
- John: Isn't there a wall there? You have to send me photos!
- Sally: Yeah, it encircles the Kremlin. Well, you must read my blog posts!
- Vanessa: I can't keep up with those.
- John: Vanessa, how's your foot?
- Vanessa: Still using crutches.

Let's Practice!

Where is everyone going?

Instructions: Read the dialogue. Draw a line from the question on the left to the response on the right.

- | | |
|---|--------------|
| 1. Where is John? | 3,606 miles |
| 2. Where is Sally? | Moscow |
| 3. How far away is Moscow from Beijing? | Beijing |
| 4. Where is Sally heading? | Argentina |
| 5. What country is Buenos Aires in? | Russia |
| 6. Where is the Kremlin? | Buenos Aires |

Let's Practice!

Can I ask you a question? Does the tour guide have an answer?

Instructions: Use the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Learning Points

The Simple Past Tense

When you travel, you ask and report about things you see. You can use the Simple Past tense to report about things you see.

Remember, there are regular and irregular verbs.

Examples:

- I ate lots of authentic Chinese food.
- Wasn't there a wall there?

Must vs. Should

You can use the modals must and should to give recommendations

Must is a very strong recommendation. You can use have to instead of must. You can use have to when you speak. Should is not as strong. It is a suggestion.

Examples:

- You must visit the Kremlin!
- You should make a Chinese dish.
- You should take lots of photos!
- You have to try the local cuisine!
