Let's Start!

Do you want to go on a tour of the city?

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about places in a limited range of social situations.

Ask your partner:

- What things do you like to do on a trip?
- What is your favorite thing to do?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about things to do or take on trips.
- I can make and respond to offers and requests.
- I can ask for, make and/or respond to suggestions.

Let's Explore!

Sally inquires about a tour in China. Where is she going?

* To "inquire about" means to ask.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Travel Agent: Chinese Adventures, good morning! How may I help you?

Sally: Hello. I'd like to get a few more details about the Beijing tour.

Travel Agent: Certainly. What would you like to know?

Sally: Could you tell me the sites we go to?

Travel Agent: Of course. On day one, you visit the Temple of Heaven. On the second day, you visit Tiananmen Square followed by the magnificent Forbidden City.

Sally: Sounds good. What else do you suggest?

Travel Agent: You can take a rickshaw tour to explore the old Hutong alley.

Sally: Sounds interesting, thank you. Could you book me for a guided tour?

Travel Agent: I can. What day is convenient for you?

Sally: Any day is okay.

Travel Agent: How about next Tuesday?

Sally: Perfect!

Travel Agent: Can I get your e-mail please? I'm going to send you some more information.

Sally: sdavis@mail.com

Let's Practice!
