Let's Start!

Learn how to use chopsticks!

Learning Outcome

Accurately use information about travel and vacations in social situations

Ask your partner:

- Can you use chopsticks?
- Do you think is it hard or easy to use them?

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about food and customs.
- I can request information in a public place.
- I can ask for and give instructions.

Let's Explore!

The chef teaches Sally how to use chopsticks.

* Two thin sticks that you use to eat food in many countries in Asia.

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

Chef: Here you are.

Sally: Can you tell me what this was called again?

Chef: Ban Mian.

Sally: Could you tell me what ingredients are included?

Chef: Besides the noodles, the base of the soup is an anchovy stock. There are mushrooms, green onions, spinach, cabbage and bamboo shoots.

Sally: How do I eat this? Could I get a fork?

Chef: We use chopsticks for picking up and eating our food. That's a custom we follow.

Sally: Can you show me how to use these?

Chef: Pick up one stick. Rest the upper half between the base of your thumb and index finger. Press the lower half of the stick firmly against your ring finger. Like this?

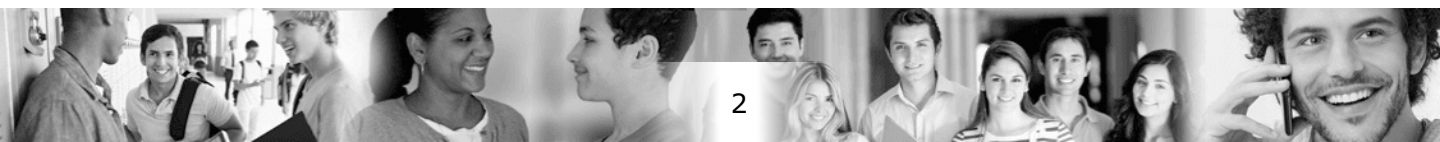

Sally: Like this?

Chef: Yes. Now, hold the second stick like you would hold a pencil. Don't move the first stick.

Sally: Do I move the second stick?

Chef: Yes, move it up and down to pick up the noodles.

Sally: This is hard.

Let's Practice!

Sally is at the noodle shop. What should she say?

Instructions: Practice reading the sentences aloud.

1. Can you tell me what this was called again?
2. Could you tell me what ingredients are included?
3. How do I eat this?
4. Could I get a fork?
5. Could you show me how to use these?
6. Do I move the second stick?

Let's Practice!
